

DROP PARTY LINE IN COMING FIGHT

Republican Attorneys of Moline Join in Discussion of Plans for Judicial Election.

WANT A RESIDENT JUDGE HERE

R. E. Kenworthy, Nominee From Rock Island, Present at Session Held at Manufacturers.

Moline is to have a non-partisan organization for the purpose of securing a resident judge for Rock Island county, and initial plans for the formation of this body were launched at a meeting held in the Manufacturers' hotel last evening.

A vigorous campaign is to be promoted in the upper end of the county to the interests of R. E. Kenworthy, democrat, and single nominee for judge of the Fourteenth judicial circuit from Rock Island county, according to arrangements discussed at the session.

Mr. Kenworthy and 15 others were present at the meeting, the number including some republican members of the county bar association whose residence is in Moline.

While Mr. Kenworthy is a democrat, sympathy of many Moline republicans is said at the meeting, is with the man at the head of the non-partisan movement, for the reason that they feel that their candidate was robbed of the G. O. P. nomination at the judicial circuit convention in Rock Island.

Another Session Soon.
No definite action was taken on any plan at last evening's session, but it is anticipated that another meeting will be held soon at which time plans will be furthered in the interest of Mr. Kenworthy.

Republicans interviewed and know.

RECALL OF GRAND JURY IS ORDERED

Edward Zerbo and Verne Madden, Both Held for Murder, Await Action of the Body.

Upon recommendation of State's Attorney F. E. Thompson, Judge H. W.
O'Connell in circuit court this morning ordered the grand jury for the May term recalled. Members of the inquestorial body are to report Tuesday morning, May 25, at 9 o'clock.

Since the jury completed its work two important criminal matters have developed. Elmer LeBette has been held to the grand jury by the coroner on a charge of murdering Edward Zerbo, jitney driver whose body was found near Watertown and Verne Madden, Davenport, is in jail following his confession that he, with a group of other boys, shot down John R. Schenck on the night of Nov. 7, 1912, in front of his home.

E. MOLINE BANKER IN TROUBLE IN CHICAGO

H. E. Bitter, teller of the Manufacturers' State bank of East Moline, was arrested at Melrose Park, a Chicago suburb, for speeding his auto, according to last evening's Chicago papers.

Two friends who were with him were held and Bitter was released in order that he might raise the cash to pay the fine. He went to Chicago and was there arrested for not having a license number on his machine. He returned to Moline, procured the money and hurried back to liberate his friends who were held as hostages.

NO WATER AT HAND SO HOUSE IS DESTROYED

Inability to secure water prevented the Moline fire department from effectively fighting a blaze at the home of Don Jones, Twenty-first avenue and Thirtieth street, Moline, at 10:30 this morning. The house was destroyed.

The nearest hydrant was blocks away, and there was no well in the neighborhood from which the department's engine could draw a sufficient supply.

The fire was caused by a defective stovepipe which projected through the roof.

Tramps set fire to a box car in the old Natick yards of the Rock Island at 4:30 this morning.

"Play Grounds" of Pythians First Order to Be Instituted in This Vicinity.

FIRST ANNUAL ROLL IS TAKEN

Moline Lodge Has Banquet and Impressive Ceremonies, 103 Responding to Their Names.

Sixty-three members of St. George lodge No. 28, Knights of Pythias, Moline, at a session held last evening accepted the invitation to a charter membership in the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, which is the "play ground" of the Pythians, and which will be instituted in Moline in the near future.

The order is a side degree, and if of a purely social nature. It has been a part of the Knights of Pythias lodge for some time in the past, but the institution of the order in Moline will be the first in this vicinity.

The meeting last evening was of particular note also, since it marked the first annual roll call of the lodge, and 129 members responded when their names were called by Eugene Taylor, secretary, who acted for the committee in charge of the festivities.

All responses were made with appropriate remarks.

Veteran Jewels Given.
Veteran jewels were presented after the roll call by A. E. Danielson to George B. Buck, John Henderson, Henry Schmidt, John Beckstrom, Dr.
A. M. Best, Fred B. Wait and Andrew Rhodes. Carl G. Lundberg paid a tribute to the flag and H. D. Wardfield, master of ceremonies, formed a procession of the veterans, headed by Gust Pfeiffer, standard bearer, while the members sang "America."

A repast was served. M. D. Rosenfeld was toastmaster and introduced M. J. Copeland, who gave an address.
C. V. Jonson responded to a toast.

REV. CHATLEY TO GIVE THE EULOGY

Pastor of Memorial Church Is Selected by Odd Fellows as Speaker June 12.

Invitation has been extended to Rev. M. E. Chatley, pastor of the Memorial Christian church, to address the Odd Fellows at their memorial exercises June 12. Selection of the speaker was made at the meeting of the joint committee of Rock Island and East lodges held last night in the I. O. O. F. hall. A similar meeting will be held next Monday night, at which time a second speaker and a quartet will be chosen.

The services will be held in Chippannock cemetery at 2 o'clock, the Odd Fellows marching to the cemetery from the lodge hall, where they will convene at 1:30. During the morning the graves are to be adorned with flowers and over each will be placed an American flag. The decorating committee is hopeful that many will aid in this work, as there are more than 100 graves to be decorated.
